Notes From Ambler

The Sunday school at this place is progressing nicely. About twenty new ones joined the classes Sunday, making a total of 82. We have good singing, a good leader and a good organist. Mr. Lawrence Simmons of Glassy Mountain was with us Sunday and gave us several good songs.

Ray Chapman of near Pickens visited his parents Sunday and also attended Sunday school. We think he comes on Sunday to visit somebody's sister, but will not say whose.

Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Hayes and little daughter visited James Hayes of Greenville last week.

Mrs. Will Hayes and little one spent a part of last week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Bub Lynch and Misses Jennie and Virgie Freeman were in this section Sunday afternoon.

Messrs. Frank and Roy Keith passed through Sunday en route to Pumpkintown to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Trotter took dinner with A. C. Smith Sunday.

Mrs. Tom Simmons returned home Sunday after spending several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Day.

Mrs. J. B. Jones and two children spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Henry Jones, of the Oolenoy section. Glad to learn that the latter's health is improving.

Mrs. G. E. Chapman has been right sick for several days.

Mrs. S. H. Brown has been quite unwell for several days, but we are glad to hear that she is some better.

Arthur Jones has a very sick child.

L. L. Mason, a traveling salesman of Chattanooga, Tenn., visited his sister, Mrs. A. A. Jones, last week.

Everything in this part of the country is beginning to look like winter, and it's a pretty good job to cut wood, build fires and sit by them. X. Y. Z.

Fine Celery Raised in Liberty

Mr. W. S. Parsons, one of Liberty's well-known citizens, is about to distinguish himself as celery grower. The publisher has been presented with a fine bunch, and Florida has nothing on the Liberty raised celery, as it is as large and bleached as fine as the choicest celery received from Florida. Mr. Parsons raised something like 350 bunches of this celery of which he still has about 100 bunches. We congratulate Mr. Parsons upon the results of his undertaking and trust he may always be a successful celery grower for Pickens county.—Liberty Gazette.

Money Saved is Money Earned

We call your special attention to the large advertisement of Hobbs-Henderson Co. in this paper. They are announcing a January Clearance Sale and the prices are most interesting. But the best part of it is that all these goods are new and seasonable and rather than carry them through the summer the owners will sell them at a sacrifice. This sale will mean the saving of many dollars to the people patronizing it.

Tribute of Love

Whereas, It hath pleased our all-wise Heavenly Father to remove from our midst our beloved sister and co-worker, Mrs. Nora Harris, we desire to record our feelings of bereavement in the loss of a member on whom we never called in vain for help, and to assure the family and loved ones of our sympathy and willingness to serve them. LADIES' AID SOCIETY, Grace Methodist Church, Pickens, S. C.

Born unto Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Gilstrap, Monday, a girl.

Oolenoy News Notes

Rev. C. L. Craig will preach at the Baptist church here next Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m. The public is very cordially invited.

Misses Ione and Cleo Hendricks and Pearl Sutherland spent the week-end with relatives in the Holly Springs section and attended a delightful social at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Chastain on Saturday night. Others attending the party from here were Misses Hallie, Pearl and Frances Jones, Evie Ferguson, Lawrence and A. C. Sutherland, Jr., Ray Lynch, Paul and Sam Edens.

Miss Mae Jones resumed work at Shiloh school, near Travelers Rest, last Monday. This is her third year's work there. This fact alone carries the significance of her popularity with her patrons there.

Mrs. H. H. Lynch spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. A. R. Edens.

Dr. and Mrs. L. F. Crenshaw of Locust spent the week-end with relatives here.

The graded school resumed work Tuesday, the 11th, with Prof. W. M. Hammond and sister, Miss Emma, of Seneca and Miss Annie Laurie Williams of Wagner in charge.

Pumpkintown News

Not long ago "Bud" Holder, having killed a billy-goat, started to skin it. After he had the hide split down the legs and belly, the goat jumped up and ran off, leaving the old man horror-stricken with his knife in his hand. Mr. Holder said: "When I caught the old fool again I chopped his head off before attempting to finish my job of removing his coat."

It is reported from Pleasant Grove section that during the Christmas holidays several windows in the schoolhouse were broken, a blackboard cut to pieces, a water pitcher and a lamp belonging to the church destroyed, and to climax the whole thing, a cat, which evidently had been shot several times, was hung up in a tree in the schoolhouse yard. And besides all this, a buggy top was cut to pieces in a shed at D. L. Barker's one night. Who committed these depredations remains a mystery. What is the world coming to?

Vernon Corbin, the squirrel killer, moved away from Pumpkintown last week. He's gone to the mountains where there are plenty of squirrels.

The Hogwallow correspondent says: "Miss Flutie Belcher was thrown from her mule with a basket of eggs and Ellick Hellwanger." But how could Ellick get into a basket of eggs? He must have had a somewhat egg-citing time doing that. When Miss Flutie fell off her mule the basket probably rolled into a gully and turned bottom upward, egg-sploding the eggs and imprisoning Ellick. However, we hope Miss Flutie quickly egg-tricated that egg-asperated youth from under that basket of eggs and egg-splained what had happened. Pardon us, Dunk; we knew what you meant. But it was funny to look at it that way, and we knew you would not "get on your ear" about it; you like a joke too well for that. Go it, Dunk; you're creating many a smile, and a man who can create a smile in this sour old world is helping to make life a little brighter for someone.

Not a single pumpkin can be seen in Pumpkintown nowadays. We mean the kind that grows on a vine, of course.

Our old-time playmate, Elmer Burgess, was among the visitors at W. D. Hendricks' Sunday. Elmer is a pretty straight old chap, even if he did smoke a cigar in our city.

Singing Convention

The Liberty township singing convention will meet with the Maplecroft Mill church the 3rd Sunday afternoon in January at 1 o'clock p. m. Everybody come and bring song books.

EX. COMMITTEE.

Casey Porter Manager

Friday's Columbia State contained the following news item: Jerry C. Porter, a member of the senior law class, was yesterday afternoon elected manager of the varsity baseball team of the University of South Carolina for the coming season. Mr. Porter is from Pickens and has played on the varsity football team for several seasons. He was an all-state guard this year and last year on The State's all-state eleven. A few games have already been arranged and Mr. Porter will begin work immediately to complete the schedule.

M. W. Hester on Woman Suffrage

Editor of The Pickens Sentinel: If you will give me space in your valuable columns I will have a say on Woman Suffrage. It is coming no matter what any man or set of men may do or say. When the old hereditary slave spirit grows out of women they will enact and execute the laws. She is major in number, unsurpassed in intellect, superior in morality, and what she lacks in physical ability she overbalances in influence. Then why should she be governed by men? Note, if you please, where women have come from in the last nineteen hundred years and you will see at a glance where she will go in a few more decades. She is slowly but surely emancipating herself and will soon be on a par with men, and then superior. Some of the youngest readers of this will live to see all this come true. Votes for women was started by an infidel, where all freedom has come from. Tom Paine was the first to advocate freedom for America; free press and free speech were started by infidels, negro slavery was abolished by the plans laid by infidels, Bob Ingersoll being one of the greatest exponents. The theory that "Man shall rule his house", and that "Woman shall be subject to her husband" are fast passing behind the onward march of intelligence and women shall be free and she will be woman no longer and shall assume another name for her sex. Repudiate any of this if you please and we will bring the proof for every assertion.

Respectfully,
Easley. M. W. HESTER.

Why It Pays to Read the Ads

ALL advertised goods are more or less guaranteed goods.

They may not carry an absolute guarantee with the purchase, but both the manufacturer and the retailer knows that if he is offering an article worth advertising it must also be an article that will give satisfaction, thus, the advertising of it implies a guarantee.

The advertiser who pays his money for newspaper space in which to tell you of his offerings has offerings worth while. Let no issue of this paper escape you without acquainting yourself with the messages from our local business houses. Get the habit of reading every ad. in every issue. It's a profitable habit to acquire.

Good Farming

It is gratifying to us to tell of the successful farming of a young farmer, Mr. T. M. Jameson, who owns and resides on the James Latham place near the old Arnold mill, four or five miles northeast of Easley. Mr. Jameson made the past year on a two and one-half horse crop twenty-seven bales of cotton, which sold for more than $1,500, besides $240.00 worth of cotton seed, cribbed over 300 bushels of corn, and made 240 bushels of peavine hay, besides plenty of vegetables of all kinds to do his family. When it is known that Mr. Jameson is a cripple, having only one hand, his success seems more remarkable. It shows what energy and perseverance will accomplish even under adverse circumstances.—Easley Progress.
